Building Healthy Communities
4th Annual CCTS Scientific Meeting
The Power of Community Engaged Research
&
5th Annual Appalachian Health Summit
Tobacco Use, Prescription Misuse & Other Addictions

May 6, 2013
7:30am—4:30pm
Nationwide & Ohio Farm Bureau 4-H Center
2201 Fred Taylor Drive
Columbus, OH 43210

Join the CCTS and the Appalachian Translational Research Network for a day of speakers, engaging breakout panels, networking opportunities and poster sessions.

Speaker & Event Highlights

Joint Keynote speaker:
Michael Botticelli
Deputy Director of the White House
Office of National Drug Control Policy
Prescription Drug Abuse: A Call to Action
8:15-9:15 a.m.

Sharon Denham
RN, DSN, Professor Emeritus, Ohio University, School of Nursing Project Director
Mountains of Trouble
9:25-10:15 a.m.

William N. Elwood, Ph.D.
National Institutes of Health Office of Basic Behavioral and Social Sciences Research
The Commonwealth of Community Health: Powerful Partnerships for Health and Wellbeing
11:00-12:00 p.m.

Free Registration
Go.osu.edu/2013CCTSMtg

See Reverse for Details
Additional Agenda Topics

4th Annual CCTS Scientific Meeting
&
5th Annual Appalachian Health Summit

Breakfast & Lunch provided

A sample of activities scheduled:

CCTS SCIENTIFIC MEETING TRACK:
- Recruitment & Retention in Community Based Research
- Innovative Approaches to CBPR
- Translating Basic Research to Population Health Improvement
- Health Reform and Community Health
- Dissemination & Implementation in Community Settings

ANNUAL APPALACHIAN HEALTH SUMMIT TRACK:
- Tobacco, Prescription Drugs & Other Addictions Peer Reviewed
- Panel Discussion “Community based participatory methods: Stories from the field.”
- From Problem to Epidemic in a Decade: Prescription Drug Abuse Trends in Rural Appalachia
- Implementation of EBP & Fidelity
- Implementation Challenges in this Funding

Appalachian Health Summit Sponsored by:

[Logos of sponsors]